

BERMUDA EDUCATION
NETWORK

Book:

DIG, DIG, DIGGING

As you read:

- Have children repeat the endings on each page as you read.

Examples:

“dig, dig digger, gobble, gobble, gobbling”

- Have children say at the last line of each page, “They can work all day” as adults point to the phrase.

Discussion Questions

- + Have you seen any of these vehicles?
- + What jobs do they do?
- + What sounds would a tractor make?
- + What jobs do they do?
- + What’s another word for lorrie?

Be sure to congratulate your child on a job well done, and continue to encourage them to read more!