

Culture Quest

Portugal Edition

You are a culture detective!

Choose a cultural tradition, celebration, story or art form from Portugal or Bermuda.

Record your clues and write a short report explaining what you discovered.

Your report must include:

1

What you investigated.

2

At least 4 vocabulary words from the expedition word bank.

3

How the tradition, story or art form is shared.

4

Why it is important to a family or community.

Vocabulary Bank

oral history

Stories and information that are passed down by speaking from one generation to the next.

griots

People in some African cultures who keep history and stories alive by telling them through speaking, song and music.

dialects

Different ways of speaking a language in a certain place or by a certain group of people.

writing

Using letters, words and symbols to share ideas, stories and information.

heritage

The traditions, stories, art, language and beliefs that are passed down from one generation to the next.

culture

The way of life of a group of people, including their traditions, language, beliefs, food, music, art and more.

diverse

Made up of many different people, cultures, ideas, languages or traditions.

celebrations

Special events or activities that people take part in to mark an important occasion.

religions

Beliefs and practices about a higher power or powers, and the ways people follow and express their faith.

artistic creations

Things people make using their imagination and skills, such as paintings, music, dance, sculptures, crafts or other artwork.

Extension Challenge:

Compare a cultural tradition, celebration, story or art form from Portugal with one from Bermuda. What similarities or differences did you find?